

New Term Art Introduction Activity

Suitable for all years

Children can begin the term by drawing an introductory art page in their sketchbooks. This might be a lettering exercise where the children write the words; 'Art Year _' or their name. This could be developed into colour or collage over a couple of lessons.

It's a great way to help you get on your feet at the start of the new term!

